HONGKONG, JUNE 21ST, 1933.

From the telegram published today it will be seen that danger of hostile intentions between France and Siam is not altogether past. The French squadron has been ordered to the Gulf of Siam and it is intended to occupy the island of Samit. With the exception of the unfortunate affair in which Captain THORNTON was captured while on his way to Khone with a convoy, Siam does not seem to have offered any active resistance to the French advance on the Mekong, and for the attack on the convoy a formal apology is supposed to have been made. Captain THORNTON, however, still remains in captivity, and it is probably to secure his release, together with an indemnity for the attack, that the naval demonstration and the occupation of an island in the Gulf of Siam are intended. If Siam is wise she will endeavour to make the best terms she can without loss of time, for the longer the settlement is delayed the more onerous will the demands of France become. As regards the captured French officer, however, she appears to be in a grave difficulty. Having apologised for the attack the cannot now attempt to justify it and nothing remains for her but to hand over the prisoner. But this she has so far been unwilling to do. Formal instructions for his surrender have been given, but the Lueticians have Captain THORNTON in hand do not seem disposed to part with him, notwithstanding the order from Bangkok. While Siam has been laying claim to the whole valley of the Mekong the Government appears unable to forfeit its own on the right bank of the river, the possession of which is not disputed by France. The fact is, the territory on both banks of the river above the Cambodian frontier is held by semi-independent tribes over whom neither Siam nor Annam has exercised any effective control. Siam, when she heard of the claims advanced on behalf of Annam by France, sent a few soldiers to occupy posts here and there on the left as well as on the right bank of the river, in order to establish her claim to actual occupation, but of effective control over the territory there was none whatever.
Responsibility for the detention of Captain THORNTON cannot, however, be disclaimed by the Siam Government, seeing he is kept a prisoner on territory over which Siam is supposed to possess sovereign rights. Those rights have no doubt been nominal than real hitherto, but they must now be enforced, in order to effect the liberation of the French prisoner. When this has been done and Captain THORNTON is once more safely under the protection of his own flag, the discussion of an indemnity will have to be entered on, and in respect of this, as well as of the disputed territory, Siam had better come to terms as soon as she can.

Whatever the rights or wrongs of the quarrel may be, Siam is at the mercy of France and to enter on a contest of arms would only land her in humiliation and disaster and possibly lead to the formal annexation of the whole country to the French dominions. The occupation of the island of Samit points to the probable blockade of Bangkok in the event of French demands not being at once complied with, so that the sooner Captain THORNTON is released the better. If the Siam Government should prove powerless to secure his release, such a confession of weak control would afford France a ground for taking possession of the right as well as of the left bank of the Mekong.

(Since writing the above we have received news of the murder of a French officer, Inspector GROSSENIER, and a detachment of native militia, under revolting circumstances, particulars of which are published in another column. Although the Siam Government could not have sanctioned such an outrage, they will have to make reparation for it.)

Yesterday being the anniversary of the accession of Her Majesty the Queen the men of war in harbour were gaily dressed and at noon salutes were fired.

The seven German fishermen belonging to the Provenca, who are charged with stabbing three Chinese at Shanghai, one of whom died, are to be sent to Germany for trial.

At the Magistrate's Court yesterday, before Commissioner W. O. H. Hastings, a man was sentenced to three months imprisonment with hard labour for returning from banishment.

The annual report of the Diocesan School and Orphanage shows that there are 102 boys and girls, of whom 60 are boarders and 36 day scholars.
32 of the boys are Eurasian, 48 Asiatic, and 17 European.

M.M.S. Police arrived at Shanghai from Hongkong at the last of the month, and M.M.S. Sheriff was outside the bar about to enter the port.

The Netherlands Hospital is now nearing completion and the opening ceremony is likely to take place about the middle of July. His Excellency the Governor will be invited to open the new branch of the Alois Memorial Hospital.

The Tuzer has accepted her cargo for Shanghai large three-masted steamer, with a draft of only 4 feet, which is to be put together in Shanghai, and which is intended to run for the C.M.S.N. Co. between Hankow and Kiang.

Sir Cecil Smith leaves Shanghai at the end of the month. His office does not expect until the 20th October, but he is leaving earlier so as to arrive home in the autumn and avoid the sudden change of climate that a later arrival would involve.

The Anamite, a French transport, passed through Shanghai on the 19th inst. going eastward, calling at the port. It is understood that she has on board the 250 French marines who recently shipped at Toulon for French Indo-China.

The Mercury hears from Hankow on good authority that during the past six months more than three distinct and violent outbreaks of cholera have been reported. The disease is said to have been introduced by the Italian cavalry, and that there is a money Anti-Chinese movement making itself felt in the great town.

Commander W. O. H. Hastings yesterday held two law courts. The first was into the Magistrate's Court at 40, Queen's Road West. There being nothing surprising about the evidence the premises were released.
In the second case the fire occurred in the M. J. Co. (Lith.) premises were ordered to be released.

There are indications, says the N. O. Daily News, that the Government of Siam is not entirely satisfied with the present state of internal administration in China is not at all satisfactory, and we may expect before long some new developments in the direction of a reorganisation of the Chinese Government.
The Siam Government, which has been in communication with the Chinese Government for some time, and some of the reports with a trustworthy single office, it will certainly be generally welcomed by foreigners in China.

It is now more than a month since Captain THORNTON was taken prisoner by the Siam army, and the Siam Government is beginning to express impatience that the release has not yet been secured. The Governor-General telegraphed to the French Minister at Bangkok to know what reply had been received to the formal demand made in the matter, and Mr. Pavis replied on the 12th inst. "An order for the release of Captain THORNTON was given on the 15th June."

The Naval and Military Record says—H.M. harbour ship Ajax, which has just completed an extensive refit having been completely undergone, is to replace the Victor Enterprise as flagship of the Siam Squadron. No date has yet been fixed for her departure, but it is expected that she will be ready to sail by the end of the month. The ship is a fine vessel, and will be a great asset to the Siam Squadron.

Chefoo advice received by the N. O. Daily News states that the Siam authorities at Vladivostok have sent instructions to the Russian Consul at Chefoo to issue no more pas-ports to Chinese coolies until further orders.
Coolies from Chefoo are reported to be dissatisfied with the Siam Government, and are threatening to leave Chefoo. The Siam Government is reported to be considering the matter, and may issue orders to the Russian Consul to issue no more pas-ports to Chinese coolies until further orders.

The Siam Government has announced an auction sale of the saltpetre from the Norwegian steamer Norweg, which it will be remembered was wrecked off the coast of Siam in 1928. The saltpetre is reported to be of excellent quality, and is to be sold in lots of 100 tons each. The Siam Government is reported to be considering the matter, and may issue orders to the Norwegian Consul to issue no more pas-ports to Chinese coolies until further orders.
